

G.I.S is the worldwide leader in minimizing equipment and asset downtime, providing on-line maintenance, inspection and repair. We provide critical services to our customers that enable them to maintain and operate their facilities and equipment in a safe and productive manner. Our line of specialized industrial services includes valve repair, hot tap, field machining, technical bolting, pipe repair, NDE/NDT inspection, emissions control, field heat treating, leak repair, and valve insertion. G.I.S services and parts are backed and manufactured by our highly-trained, highly-skilled, certified colleagues. We recognize that success is ultimately measured by our customers' trust and confidence, which can only be earned through continuing outstanding service. Call us today to find out how G.I.S will provide you continued outstanding service to help support your operations safely, effectively and efficiently. Contact us to find out more.

G.I.S is the worldwide leader in minimizing equipment and asset downtime, providing on-line maintenance, inspection and repair. We provide critical services to our customers that enable them to maintain and operate their facilities and equipment in a safe and productive manner. Our line of specialized industrial services includes valve repair, hot tap, field machining, technical bolting, pipe repair, NDE/NDT inspection, emissions control, field heat treating, leak repair, and valve insertion. G.I.S services and parts are backed and manufactured by our highly-trained, highly-skilled, certified colleagues. We recognize that success is ultimately measured by our customers' trust and confidence, which can only be earned through continuing outstanding service. Call us today to find out how G.I.S will provide you continued outstanding service to help support your operations safely, effectively and efficiently. Contact us to find out more.